

WHEREAS, January 19, 1904, marked the entry into the world at Highmore, South Dakota, of one Fred R. Winans; and,

WHEREAS, Fred graduated from Highmore High School in the spring of 1923, and received his L.L.B. from the University of South Dakota in 1929; and,

WHEREAS, Fred was engaged in the practice of law in Highmore for many years, serving as Hyde County States Attorney for eight terms and as State Senator from the Sixteenth Senatorial District for two terms; and,

WHEREAS, Fred served as Circuit Judge from the Sixth Judicial Circuit from 1961 to 1971, and was appointed by Governor Frank Farrag to the Supreme Court on January 1, 1971, a post from which he recently retired on January 1, of this year; and,

WHEREAS, Fred has kindly and generously agreed to continue to serve actively on both the Supreme Court and the Circuit Courts of this State; and,

WHEREAS, January 19, 1977, marks the Seventy-Third Anniversary of the birth of Fred R. Winans; and,

WHEREAS, This date is of additional historic significance in that it is the final day of the administration of Gerald R. Ford, Thirty-Eighth President of these United States; and,

WHEREAS, The birthday of Fred Winans is worthy of public recognition in the State of South Dakota, and it is fitting and proper that the Governor commend and honor him for his outstanding service to his fellow citizens over the past years, both as a member of the bar and the bench, and as a distinguished instructor in the isolated, South Dakota school system;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, RICHARD F. KNEIP, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim Wednesday, January 19, 1977, as in South Dakota, and join with me in extending a warm greeting to thanking him for his many, many contributions to our Great State, and in wishing him and his lovely wife, Marian, an abundance of good health and happiness in the years ahead.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, this 18th day of January, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Seventy-Seven
